THE KINGDOM OF HEAVEN IS AT HAND

In today's Gospel, Jesus immediately notes two things that the crowd around him lacks: laborers and a shepherd. He will provide for both. His disciples will be the laborers, and he himself will be their shepherd. Jesus sends the twelve apostles out to proclaim that the kingdom of heaven is at hand by curing the sick, raising the dead, cleansing lepers, and driving out demons. We are those laborers now. Right now, Jesus calls us to reveal the wonders of the kingdom by caring for the sick and dying, helping the poor and afflicted, finding the lost and accompanying the lonely. For the harvest is still abundant, overflowing with people in need of the Lord's gentle comfort, compassion, and mercy. May those heartfelt qualities flow through us during the week ahead. Remember, without cost we have received both the gift of life from God and the gift of new life from Jesus—given to us on the cross. Now, without cost, we are to share those gifts with others.

How will you labor in the field this week to extend the Lord's compassion and mercy, demonstrating that the kingdom of heaven is at hand?

—We Celebrate Worship Resource, Vol. 51, No. 2

EL REINO DE LOS CIELOS ESTÁ CERCA

En el Evangelio de hoy, Jesús observa de inmediato dos cosas de las que carece la multitud que lo rodea: obreros y un pastor. Él proveerá ambas cosas. Sus discípulos serán los obreros, y Él mismo será su pastor. Jesús envía a los doce apóstoles a proclamar que el Reino de los Cielos está cerca, curando a los enfermos, resucitando a los muertos, purificando a los leprosos y expulsando demonios. Nosotros somos ahora esos obreros. En este preciso momento, Jesús nos llama a revelar las maravillas del Reino cuidando a los enfermos y moribundos, ayudando a los pobres y afligidos, buscando a los perdidos y acompañando a los solitarios. Pues la cosecha sigue siendo abundante, desbordante de personas necesitadas del tierno consuelo, la compasión y la misericordia del Señor. Que esas cualidades sinceras fluyan a través de nosotros durante la semana que comienza. Recuerden: gratuitamente hemos recibido tanto el don de la vida de parte de Dios como el don de la vida nueva de parte de Jesús —don que se nos entregó en la cruz—. Ahora, también gratuitamente, debemos compartir esos dones con los demás.

¿Cómo trabajarás en el campo esta semana para extender la compasión y la misericordia del Señor, demostrando que el reino de los cielos está cerca?
